

These 15 acres of dry grassland, woodland and fen meadow along the valley side are already valuable habitats. They offer a taste of what we aim to achieve across the sweep of arable land.

